

The Everest Expedition in 2017 Spring

Introduction

The Everest Expedition in 2017 Spring Nepal is the dream destination to the mountaineers. Summit to the top of the world, Mt. Everest 8848m is the lifetime achievement to any climber to their life. The spring season is the best season to the mountain climbing. According to the officer of the Tourism department, mountaineering section Mr. Khem Prasad, 255 Nepali and 190 foreigners scale the top of the world in this season. Due to weather problem and other personal causes, other 180 person could not reach to the top. Compare to last year the weather was good this year to the climbers. The oldest climber 84 year, Mr. Min Bahadur Sherchan from Nepal had died on his way to Everest. Other 4 different nationalities were in accident to their way to Mt. Everest. The Chinese government have decided not to issue the permit to Mt. Everest climb from China side. They have said that there were illegal activities while climbing. Further The China side are concerned about the rubbish in Everest. The Chinese side urge Nepal to control the pollution and crowd to the Everest expedition.

Trip Facts
